

Attention Cardiff Medics...

Want to hear about the exciting research going on, right here in Cardiff?

If YES, then come along to Cardiff University Research Society's very FIRST Academic Talk!

Thursday 13th November 2014 at 6pm
Michael Griffith Education Centre, Seminar Room 1F09/1F09A

The evening will be hosted by Professor Judith Hall OBE
Head of Department of Anaesthetics, Intensive Care & Pain Medicine, UHW

Research Interests:

- Clinical Lead - Innate Immunity & Critical Illness, Size of Sepsis in Wales Study
- Group Lead - Critical Illness Research Group
- Engineering, Anaesthesia and the Airway
- Sedation Mechanisms in Neuroscience
- Director - Mothers of Africa, a medical education charity that trains medical staff to provide care for pregnant women, in Sub-Saharan Africa (<http://mothersofafrica.org.uk/>)

Talk Overview:

- Mothers of Africa
- The Phoenix Project
- Medical Education Innovation: a proposal

For more info, visit

- <http://blogs.cardiff.ac.uk/hallje/>

Attendance is FREE - we look forward to seeing you there!

Mothers of Africa

Registered Charity No: 1114509

